Bikes to Hit Carrell's Again

Chuck Basney, the "badboy" of A.M.A. motorcycledom, will seek further triumphs Friday night at Carrell Speedway, when the cycle stars return to the Gardena raceway.

Last week most of the "names" invaded Bay Meadows for the 100-mile championship. Now they have all returned home and will continue their feuding on the Gardena half-mile.

Basney will have plenty of trouble from such star cycle stars as Bud Hogan, Bert Brundage, Kelly Meyers, Ed Kretz, Jr., Jimmy Phillips and the rest of the motorcycle "madmen."

Twelve races are on the card which will start with the trophy dash at 8:30. Time trials will start shortly after 6 p.m.

This will be the fifth night session for the A.M.A. cyclists under the aegis at Carrell and another good crowd is expected.

Sea-Eras Add Another Win To Records

Syd Flahive singled in Marion Hixon with the winning run in the fifth inning to give the undefeated Sea-eras a 5-4 edge over the Tartarettes last Thursday evening at Waller Park.

With two out in the final frame, the seventh, Joyce Bernhart of the losers lashed out a homerun, but the rally was cut short when the next batter grounded out.

Thursday's other fray was also a close contest as the Rebels downed Harvey, 12-11. Betty Peterson, winning hurler, led her squad at the plate with a double and single in four trips.

Juniors Split Tilts To Hold Third Spot

Little was settled in the Centinela Valley Junior circuit during the past week as the six teams wound up in the same standing they had a week ago.

Culver City continued to hold the lead while Torrance, Hawthorne and Hawthorne battled for the runner-up spots.

The Torrance nine split games during the week, losing to Gardena 15-3 last Wednesday night, and winning from Hawthorne 6-4 Sunday afternoon.

Tom Vanderpool, Larry Roy and Bob Hanks teamed up to handle the pitching chores against Gardena, but the visitors turned seven hits into 15 runs by taking advantage of a series of errors and walks. The Torrance batters were able to collect only four hits during the evening.

PET WEEK PLANS GET FINAL NOD

Scores of boys and girls in Torrance's playgrounds are eagerly awaiting the "Pet Week" program to be carried on next week.

Anyone with a large, small, old, well behaved, good looking, unusual, well trained, artistically displayed, or comically dressed pet may compete at the playground nearest to his home.

Contestants are reminded to bring food and water for their pets, have them completely under their control, and to utilize sun shades for animals unaccustomed to heat. Insects such as fleas or grass hoppers are not to be considered as pets.

During the week, daily story hours will feature stories of famous pets and will include time for children to tell stories about their own pets.

One of the primary objectives of the week is to develop interest in the care and raising of pets. Children will be instructed on feeding and cleaning animals.

El Retiro Set For Olympics

Beginning with the lighting of the friendship fire, a Junior Olympics Day will be staged Saturday at El Retiro Park. An Olympic torch will be carried through the Hollywood Riviera area by relaying bearers and will light the fire at the park at 11 a.m. to start off the events.

Events will be held for both boys and girls from the ages of seven to fifteen. They will be divided into age groups, and awards will be given to first, second and third place finishers in each race.

According to supervisors Bob Kingston and Jo Ann Herbst, parents are invited to enjoy the day at the park.
